ELECTION COMMUNICATION FOR BARNSELY CENTRAL

I am delighted to have been selected as the Conservative Party's Prospective Parliamentary Candidate for Barnsley Central. If elected, I pledge to represent a better deal for Barnsley, focusing on job creation and education as a foundation for future growth and success.

I am a clean slate candidate, having worked for the last ten years in the private sector. With no party political baggage, I provide the common sense alternative. I believe that actions speak louder than words.

In the coming months I will be showing voters what a hard working MP I would be, representing my constituents and providing the change that Barnsley and the country need.
